Painting	MARCH	On the 6th March 2012 the "Elite School" of Islamabad finished a big mural painting, which has been already started by pupils of the "Minami Tsurumaki School" in Japan. The Japanese boys and girls have painted on the left side the famous and historical Badshahi Mosque of Lahore. Above it they drew the flag of Pakistan and a white dove. Because of this the Pakistani children also wanted to paint a well-known and old building of Japan. After a short discussion and some explanation of Fauzia Minallah, the kids decided to draw the "Itsukushima Shrine" . It is a very famous shrine near Hiroshima. Furthermore they painted Mount Fuji, a white dove, and the Japanese flag too. This should be a symbol of peaceful friendship between Pakistan and Japan.
